

Where is the Sea?

I – Where is the sea? (10)

- Name the water bodies to the north and south of Singapore island.
- Name of the land masses in the north, and to the west and south of Singapore (use the regional map).
- Identify the biggest river in a neighbouring country which influences the Pulau Ubin - Changi - Pulau Tekong area.
- Locate and name the seas nearest to Singapore (use the regional map).
- Indicate on the map, the direction of the monsoon winds which blow into Singapore.

II – Where are these rivers/reservoirs, and how many flow to the sea? (16)

- Sungei Buloh
- Sungei Kranji
- Lower Seletar Reservoir
- Upper Seletar Reservoir
- Sungei Punggol
- Sungei Serangoon
- Sungei Api Api
- Sungei Tampines
- Sungei Changi
- Lower Peirce Reservoir
- Upper Peirce Reservoir
- MacRitchie Reservoir
- Sungei Kallang
- Singapore River
- Sungei Pandan
- Jurong River

III – Where are these coastal sites located on the map of Singapore? (16)

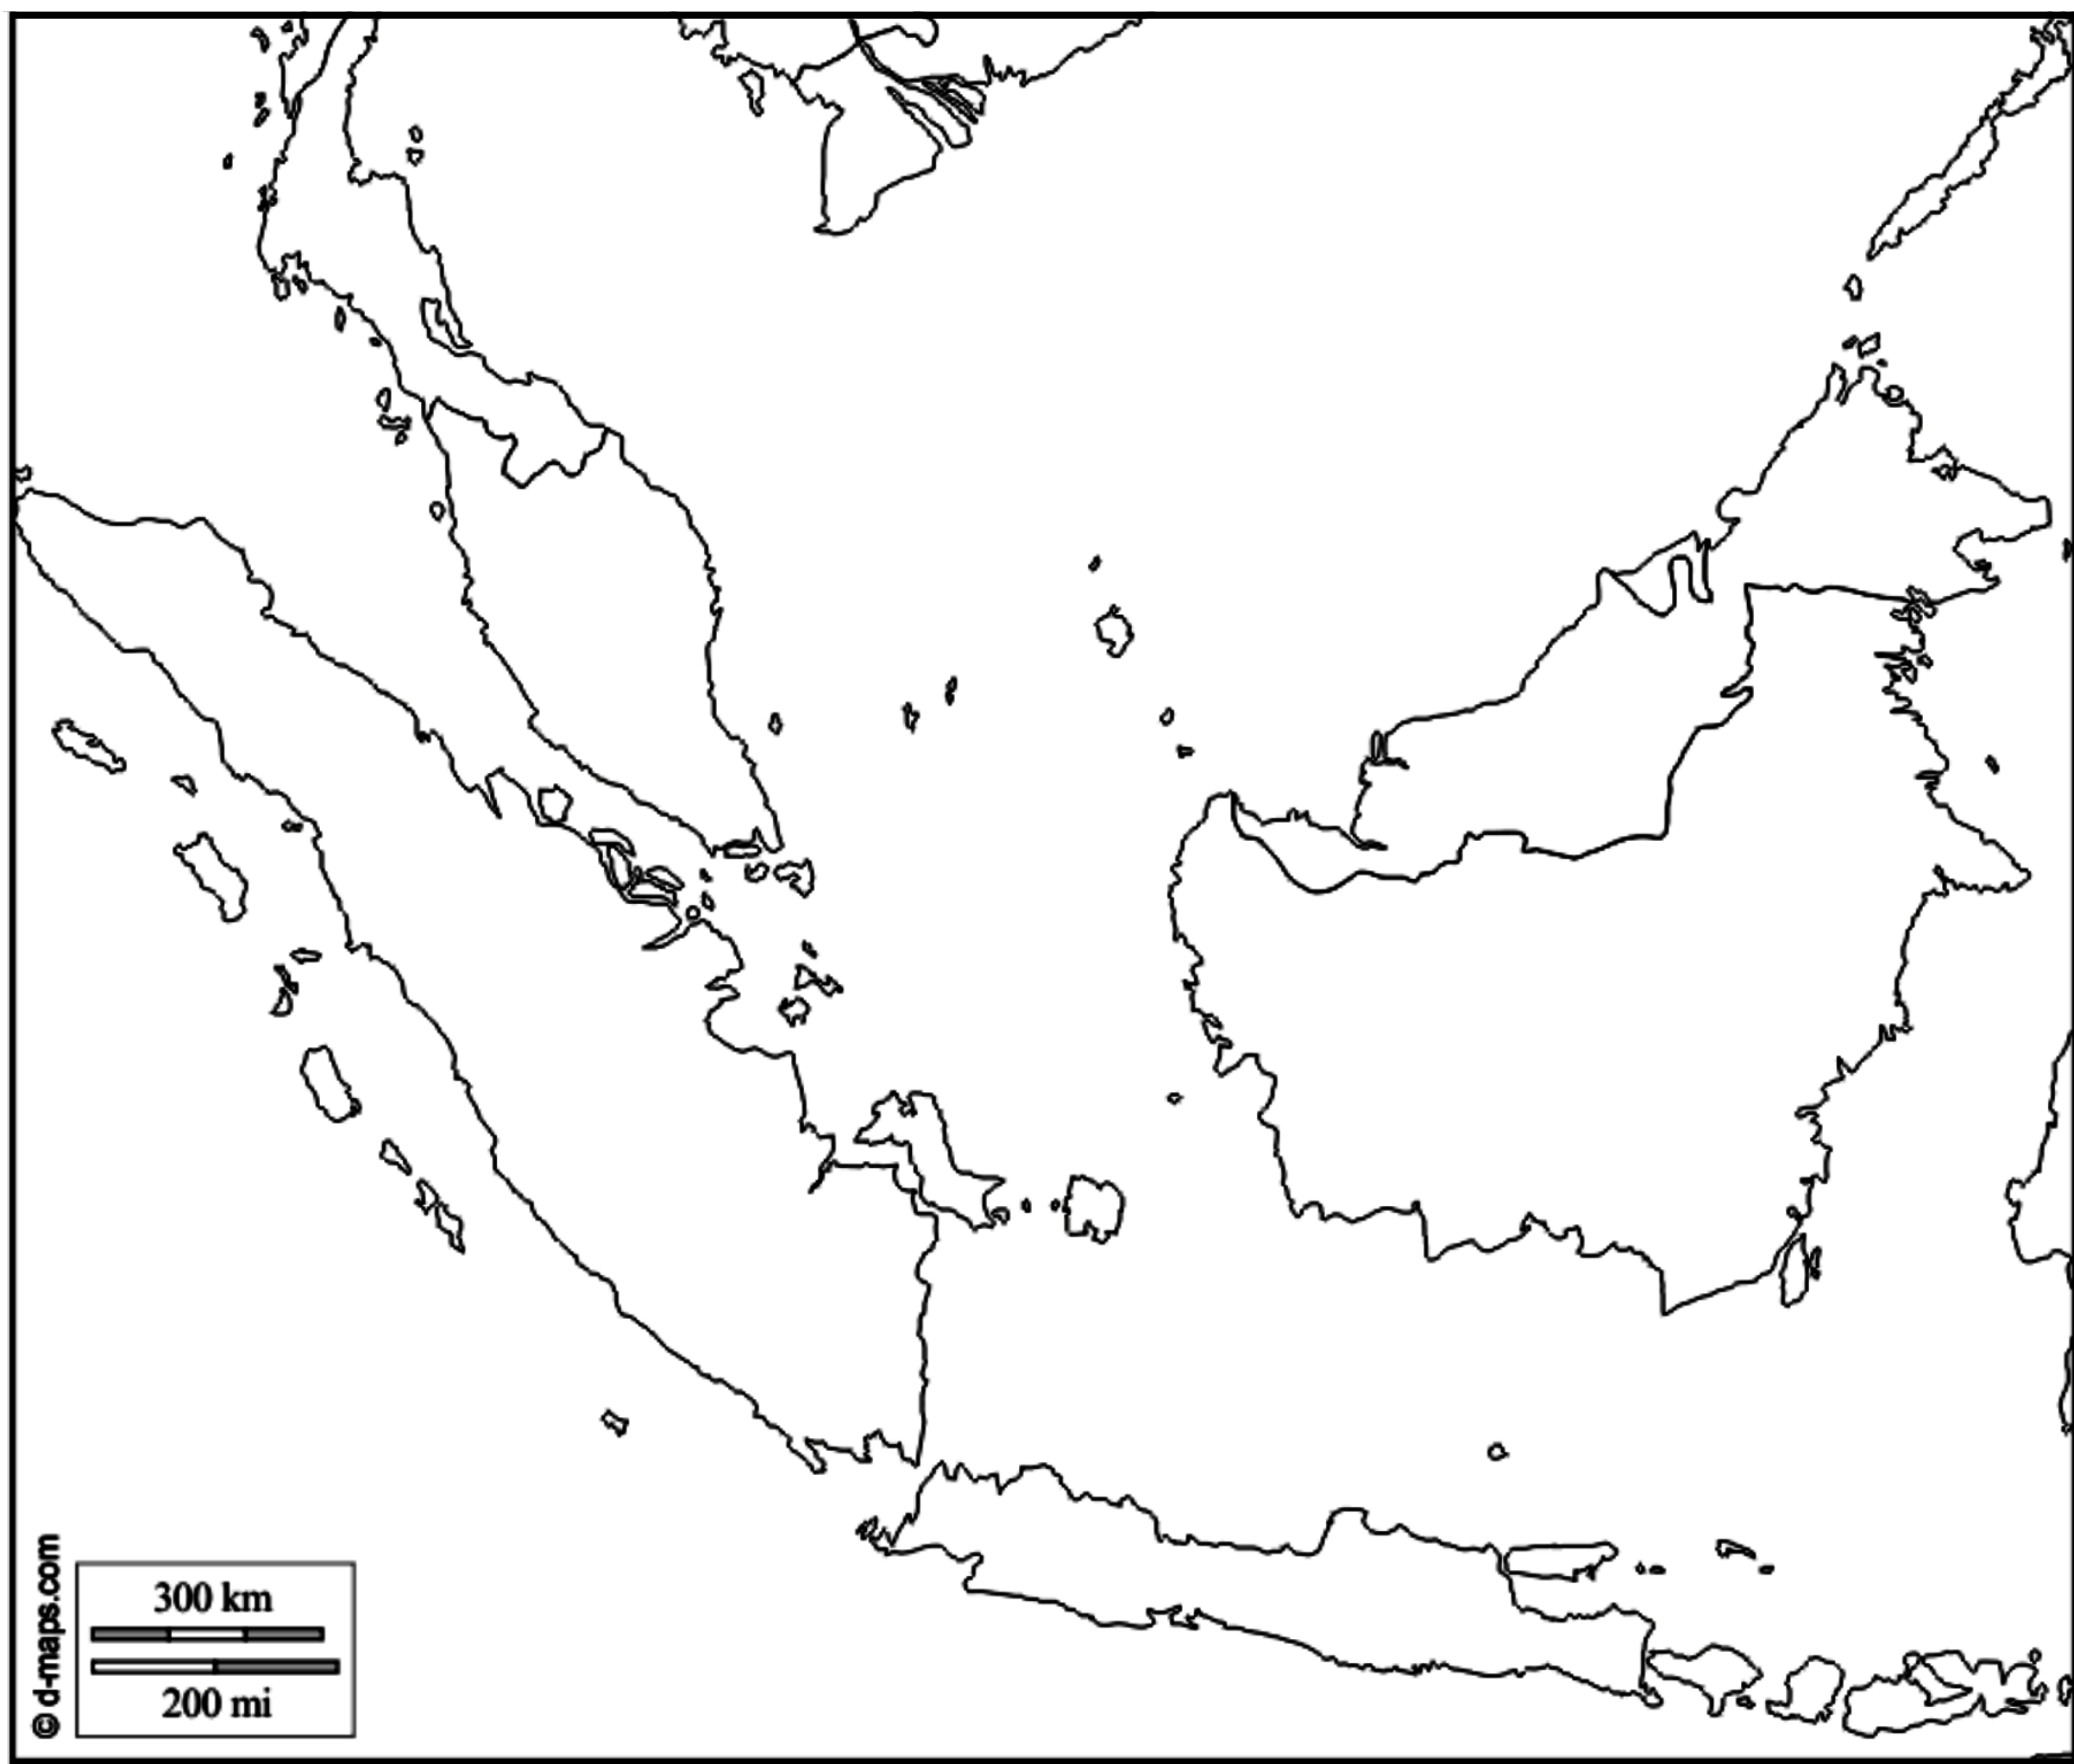

- Sungei Buloh
- Mandai Mangrove and Mudflat
- Khatib Bongsu
- Punggol-Serangoon
- Pulau Serangoon
- Pasir Ris
- Changi
- Pulau Ubin
- Tanah Merah
- East Coast
- Labrador
- Sungei Ulu Pandan Kechil
- St. John's Island
- Sister's Islands
- Pulau Semakau
- Pulau Hantu

IV – What are these areas and what do think they represent?

- Western Catchment
- "Tengah Forest"
- Bukit Batok Nature Park
- Central Catchment
- Bukit Timah
- Pulau Ubin
- Pulau Tekong

V - Where are these ecosystems best represented in Singapore

- Mangroves (muddy shores)
- Beaches (sandy shores)
- Rocky shores
- Coral reefs
- Sea grass beds
- Primary rainforest
- Old Secondary rainforest

300 km

200 mi

